

2019 Japan inbound tax reform seminar

The impact on foreign companies investing in Japan

We are pleased to invite you to the 2019 Japan tax reform seminar hosted by Ernst & Young Tax Co. In the seminar, we will discuss the legislative intent of the recently announced 2019 Japan tax reform outline, providing an overview of its new and amended rules, as well as the impact of the changes on foreign companies with business activities and investments in Japan.

EY tax professionals will be providing insight on the following key areas of 2019 tax reform:

- ▶ Corporate income tax updates on revisions to the R&D tax credits, reorganization tax rules, scope of small and medium-sized enterprises, etc.
- ▶ International taxation updates on revised transfer pricing and earnings stripping rules
- ▶ Updates on the tax controversy environment
- ▶ Housing loan tax credits

The seminar will be held in English and end with a Q&A discussion.

Date and Time:

Tuesday, 5 February 2019, 14:30-16:00 (Doors open at 14:00)

Location: Hibiya Mitsui Tower, Tokyo Midtown Hibiya,
9F, Hall & Conference, Room 6,
1-1-2, Yurakucho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo

Cost: Free

Registration:
www.eytax.jp/seminar/es

Contact:

EY Japan
Brand, Marketing and Communications
Email: japan.seminar@jp.ey.com

EY
Building a better working world